Special House Committee Is Endeavoring to Solve the Five-Months Old State Tax Tangle

Harrisburg, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Speaker Herbert P. Sore (R-Elk) said today that the commonwealth's top fiscal experts will be asked to provide budget figures to a special house committee.

The committee was ready to call Revenue Secretary Otto F. Messer and Budget Secretary Edward B. Logan to appear at its opening session.

"We will discuss first the senate tax compromise and obtain figures on each of the taxes," Sore told a newsmen in advance of the meeting.

Both Messer and Logan recently provided data to a similar senate committee which came up with a tax package that failed to meet with approval of house Republicans.

Harriman Works to Form Bloc Against Soviet Imperialism

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Formation of a strong defensive bloc against Russian imperialism in southeastern Europe is believed to have been the aim of W. Averell Harriman's week-end visit to Marshal Tito.

Harriman, President Truman's ranking diplomatic trouble shooter, paused in Yugoslavia Saturday and Sunday en route from Tehran, Iran, to London.

It is no secret that the U. S. retains and various other Atlantic countries would like to see a common front in this area—Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey and perhaps Italy to draw together in a military alliance.

Collectively they could mount enough strength in fighting men and material to challenge, with American help, Soviet hopes of obtaining a controlling position in the Mediterranean.

Yugoslavia has an army second only to Russia in the Balkan peninsula; the Greek army has been toughened by its experience in the recently ended civil war and is equipped by the U. S. The Turks always have proved formidable foes.

The U. S. State Department and joint chiefs of staff dreamed of such an alliance as long ago as 1946. At that time, Tito still was allied with the Kremlin.

Resident of Endeavor Seriously Hurt in Early Morning Crash Near Tidioute

Bruce E. Ziegler, 27, son of Lee C. Ziegler, well known resident of Endeavor, is in a critical condition in Hamot Hospital, Erie, this afternoon, following an accident on Route 63, three and one half miles south of Tidioute.

Ziegler was injured at 7:05 this morning when, while operating a farm tractor, he was struck by a heavy truck and trailer driven by Kenneth Dauble, 24, of Eau Claire, Pa. Both were traveling north on Route 62 and the Dauble vehicle, coming suddenly over the brow of a hill, bore down on Ziegler before Dauble knew the tractor was there.

State Police said this afternoon that Dauble will be arrested on a charge of "driving too fast under existing conditions."

Ziegler was rushed to Warren General Hospital in the Sage ambulance from Tidioute, and after an examination it was decided to take him to Hamot Hospital in Erie. He suffered a compound fracture of the left leg, crushed right ribs, severe scalp lacerations, and possible internal injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler, who are engaged in farming, recently purchased a new home near Tidioute and expected to move into it this week. They have been staying with Mrs. Ziegler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Hall at East Hickory.

Widger works 15½ hours a day. He takes only a half hour for lunch and a nap.

INDIA REFUSES TO SIGN JAP PEACE TREATY

Washington, Aug. 27.—(AP)—A new and less benevolent American policy toward India appeared certain today to result from Prime Minister Nehru's refusal to sign a United States-backed peace treaty with Japan.

American officials made no secret of their bitter disappointment at India's public denunciation of the proposed treaty draft, coming as it did only nine days before the start of a formal 50-nation peace conference in San Francisco September 4.

India's arguments for boycotting the signing, officials here said, seemed to echo Russia's long standing objections, and give powerful, timely ammunition to a new Moscow propaganda drive to wreck the Japanese treaty.

In New Delhi, Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told parliament today that India will sign a separate treaty with Japan as soon as Japan has achieved independent status.

Nehru, whose treaty statement brought cheers from parliament, did not say what he meant by "independent status." However, it was explained later that he was referring to Japan's position after the signing and ratification of the San Francisco treaty.

State Police Busy As Many Accidents Occur on Highways

Pennsylvania State Police had one of the busiest week-ends of the summer with several accidents taking place on traffic-jammed highways near Warren.

Joseph Cusumano of Brooklyn, N. Y., was badly injured at 2:30 p. m. Saturday when he lost control of his car on Route 62, five miles north of Tidioute. According to State Police, the car turned over several times and Cusumano is in Warren General Hospital with a fractured right shoulder and other injuries.

A car driven by H. L. English of North Warren, was struck by a car driven by E. A. Wenzel, RD 2, at 8:45 a. m. Sunday as the English car was being backed from a driveway on Route 69. No one was injured but about $275 damage was done to the two cars.

Three cars were damaged at 10:30 p. m. Sunday, in a miniature pile-up on Route 6, three miles west of Warren. State Police said cars driven by John Miller of Webster Springs, W. Va., and by William H. Hansen, 17 East Fifth avenue, Warren, came to a sudden stop to allow a preceding car to turn into a driveway, and were pushed together by a third car driven by Robert A. Mourer, 79 Fifth street, Youngsville. Considerable damage was done to all three cars and Mourer suffered a forehead laceration.

Anthony Galenis, 105 Canton street, remains on the critical list at Meadville City Hospital, Meadville, as the result of an automobile accident at 9:15 p. m. Friday, on Route 77, 10 miles northeast of Meadville.

Mrs. Galenis, who returned from Meadville last evening, said today that additional X-rays will be taken this afternoon to fully determine the extent of her husband's injuries. Both arms were injured, and Mr. Galenis has, besides a scalp laceration, a deep cut around his left eye which will be given attention by a specialist today. He has a possible skull fracture.

State police at Meadville said the Warren man, en route toward Meadville, lost control of his car at the top of Green Hill. The call rolled over several times on the left berm, then into the path of an oncoming car driven by Jack R. Clark, of Spartansburg. The Clark car was demolished but the driver was unhurt.

North Warren Twin Has Mild Attack of Polio, Virus Type

Word today from Bradford Hospital states that Ann Proper, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Proper, 11 Jackson street, North Warren, is responding well to the hospital's course of treatment for polio.

When it was determined that Ann had symptoms of polio, she and her twin brother, Robert, were taken to Bradford Hospital for examination. It was found that Ann was afflicted in a very mild way, but thorough tests proved that Robert did not have the dread disease. Mrs. Proper and Robert will remain under quarantine until Wednesday when Mrs. Proper will again visit her daughter at the hospital.

The attack did not affect Ann's respiration in any way, her chief complaint being of pains in the back and neck. Having just had some teeth pulled, her parents thought she was suffering pain from this but it was established the oral surgery had no connection with the attack. At the hospital it was said this morning that Ann is responding to treatment very satisfactorily and will be moved into the children's ward later in the week.

Mr. Proper is on the maintenance staff at Warren State Hospital.

"Old Age Just Habit" Says MacFadden Making 'Chute Jump on 83rd Birthday

New York, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Physical Culturist Bernarr MacFadden, who celebrated his 83rd birthday with a 2,000-foot parachute jump into the Hudson river, yesterday, says he is "good for things like this for 10 more years."

"I recommend this for everybody," he adds. "It's a darn good thing to do. I could do it every day in the week."

When MacFadden was fished out of the Hudson after his jump yesterday, he said:

"I feel like a million. I feel 25. Next year, I'm going to jump over Niagara Falls."

MacFadden's parachute leap yesterday was for a dual purpose, he said, of demonstrating that "old age is just a habit" and that U. S. paratroopers need have no fear of landing in water.

But the publisher of health pamphlets and romance magazines also failed to accomplish the second purpose. A wind caught MacFadden and almost dashed him into the rocky palisades.

Police Investigate Two Car Accidents

Borough police investigated two automobile mishaps over the weekend, the first taking place at 7:05 p. m. Sunday when a car driven by Claude P. Edgell of Battle Creek, Mich., struck a car driven by Donald W. Kelly, 11 W. Fifth avenue, at the Market street and Fifth avenue intersection.

Mr. Edgell was proceeding south on Market street, looking for a tourist home, and did not see the light at Fifth avenue, striking the Kelly car which was approaching from the west. The latter machine was damaged to the extent of $250 and the Edgell car to the extent of $350.

When the right front spring broke, a car driven by Edward C. Groves, Youngsville RD 1, went out of control on Pennsylvania avenue, east, at 2 a. m. today. The car went up over the curb and ran into the porch on the home of L. P. Walters, 1214 Pennsylvania avenue, east, pushing the steps under the porch and doing damage to the extent of about $20.

Answer Broadcast by Peiping Radio Bitterly Refutes Claim On Alleged Kaesong Violation

Tokyo, Tuesday, Aug. 28.—(AP)—The Communist high command today bitterly rejected the Allied reply on an alleged Kaesong neutrality violation but, at the same time, left the door open to a possible resumption of the Korean armistice talks.

The Reds broke off the stalemate talks Aug. 23, alleging that an Allied plane had attempted to "murder" the Communist delegation at the Kaesong conference site.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme United Nations commander, told them Saturday their charges were "malicious lies" but that he was willing to resume the armistice effort.

In a reply broadcast early today by the Peiping radio, North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Chinese Red Gen. Peng Teh-Huai said Ridgway's statement was "entirely unsatisfactory."

They accused him of manufacturing incidents to break up the truce talks and of "slandering" the Communists.

Near the end of the day, the Reds said the Communists are still expecting Allied liaison officers and newsmen to go to Kaesong to investigate Wednesday's alleged bombing.

Allied officers went to Kaesong and checked the report in the early morning hours Thursday immediately after the Red charge was made by radio telephone to Mun-san.

Later, supreme headquarters in Tokyo said "the whole incident is a frameup from first to last."

Peiping tonight said the U. N. plane made three passes at Kaesong. The broadcast said the plane dropped four napalm fire bombs, 12 anti-personnel bombs and "the third time it flew over it carried out strafing."

The alleged new violations of Kaesong's neutral zone and the China coast, Peiping said, were designed to "menace the national security of China" and "put an end to the peace negotiations, with war."

In detail the Reds listed these new charges:

1.—American warplanes flew over China's coastal cities Thursday and Saturday.

2.—American and South Korean "plainclothesmen" violated the Kaesong neutral zone "again" Saturday.

3.—On Saturday afternoon seven American planes "invaded" the Kaesong area.

Ridgway told the Reds Saturday that resumption of talks was up to them. Communists broke them off Thursday, charging that an American warplane attacked Kaesong to "murder" the Red delegation.

The supreme commander's reply was the strongest blast he has leveled at the Communists. He said that charge and others were false, fabricated and unworthy of reply.

Army and Air Force Generals Predict Mass 'Chute Jumps May Be Outmoded

Fort Bragg, N. C., Aug. 27.—(AP)—The Carolina war games ended today in complete victory by U. S. forces.

Umpires said that the 43rd and 28th Infantry Divisions, aided by 6,000 paratroopers of the 82nd Airborne Division who jumped over the weekend, "knocked out" the enemy aggressor.

The infantrymen and the paratroopers linked up for the final push that overwhelmed the enemy as the two-week exercise Southern Pine closed. The maneuver, biggest field training exercise since World War II, involved 110,000 soldiers and airmen.

The director, Lt. Gen. John Hodge, said that the maneuvers were worth five times their cost, and the 43rd and 28th Divisions, which will join Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's European defense army this fall, received "valuable field training."

Army and Air Force generals predicted that mass paratroop jumps by airborne infantry may soon be outmoded by big assault landing aircraft.

They were impressed by the first tests of the C-122 as a fast carrier of heavy equipment in the war games which reached their final phase here this morning. And they see no reason why infantrymen couldn't be landed with the same efficiency.

The mass jumps and dropping of heavy equipment by parachutes are daring and spectacular—but sometimes they are costly in both men and equipment even under ideal conditions.

Lt. Gen. John Hodge, commander of the maneuvers, told reporters he believes the C-122 assault aircraft has "tremendous possibilities" for transporting both men and equipment.

Allies Clash With Enemy Troops in Old Iron Triangle

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Aug. 27.—(AP)—An Allied patrol clashed with Red troops in a three-hour skirmish today in the old iron triangle in North Korea.

The fight came as the UN troops probed the former Red assembly area almost to its northernmost tip at Pyongyang.

Three other sharp actions broke off before dawn on the east central front.

Along the rest of the front only minor engagements were reported.

Rain and low-hanging clouds over Red Korea's spiny ridge tops cut visibility to a few hundred yards in some areas.

The bad weather reduced the Allied air attacks on Communist convoys bringing men and supplies to the front lines. Only 200 sorties were flown.

SYLVANIA CUTS PRICE OF TELEVISION SETS

New York, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., reduced prices of its television sets by $30 to $50 today. Several other major set makers have made similar reductions in the past two weeks.

The lowest priced set, a 14-inch table model, was cut from $219.95 to $189.95, and the highest priced, a 20-inch console combination with the company's "HaloLight" feature, from $659.95 to $599.95.

Busy Weekend Is Reported By Boys At Lutheran Camp

(By camp reporter)

The Lutheran Boys camp ended at Camp Birdsell Edey on Sunday. The closing was preceded by a busy week-end. Friday evening was the occasion of the annual hike which was concluded with a weiner roast in the woods near the camp. Saturday morning was given to a swimming meet staged between the different tent units. In the afternoon the staff defeated a picked camper team at softball.

A rigid inspection of the camp area was made on Saturday which was a part of preparation for departure on Sunday. Many of the boys who had not completed the requirements necessary to receive the camp "L" worked diligently during the day to be eligible for the award at evening campfire. Twenty-four boys were given the "L" at the final campfire.

The tent units which had the best average in the different competitive games were given prizes of cakes or fruit for their efforts. The unit which kept the best tent according to the daily inspection records also receive a cake.

Parents began to call for the boys after the Sunday dinner hour and in a few hours the camp was a silent spot in the woods. Close to sixty boys enjoyed the ten day camping period under the direction of Ken Greenlund and his staff of about twenty.

FORDOMATIC

THE FORDOMATIC FORD GIVES YOU AN ENTIRELY NEW KIND OF DRIVING!

OUTGOES THEM ALL!

Combines best features of previous drives! Fordomatic gives you two automatic drives in one—a torque converter for smoothness—and automatic gears for get-up-and-GO and gas savings. You get just the power you need, when you need it!

Fordomatic Drive optional at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.

Practically drives itself. Fordomatic thinks for you. It automatically provides a countless number of ratios through which engine power is fed to the rear wheels—automatically adjusts the ratio as needed to give you a new kind of performance, new smoothness.

Easier rocking! It's even easier to "rock" out of sand, snow, or mud with Fordomatic than with Conventional drive. All you do is flick the drive selector between Low (L) and Reverse (R). Fordomatic's safer, too, because like conventional drives, forward and reverse positions are separated by neutral.

You're boss every second! Fordomatic obeys your every wish. Step down on the accelerator and you get an extra spurt of power for hill climbing and passing. Going downhill you can shift to low at any speed for extra engine braking.

It's a gas-saving powerhouse! Fordomatic's lower rear axle ratio gives the fewest engine revolutions per mile of any car in its field with an automatic transmission. Fordomatic's automatic intermediate gear provides smooth, fast economical "getaway" without wasteful engine racing.

Highway Dep't Has Demonstration of Fed. Bureaucracy

Harrisburg, Aug. 27—What price bureaucracy in the federal government?

The Department of Highways believes it has a partial answer in one incident—one hundred and four dollars and eighty-six cents of state motor license fund money and other costs that cannot be computed readily.

The way of it is this:

One of the newer agencies of the federal government decided to use the State Highway Department as a vehicle for the distribution of a questionnaire to local units of government, contractors, and others associated with highway construction to a total of 2742 parcels of mail.

It specified returns must be back and tabulated within an all too short time.

Consequently first class mail had to be used.

Each parcel weighed 11 ounces. Postage on each was thirty-three cents. Total weight nearly one ton. Total cost $904.86.

Self-addressed envelopes had to be prepared with the result the stenographic unit was thrown into overtime. The mail unit likewise in both instances other important mail had to be deferred.

In a few days the mail will start its return trip. Then the tabulating section will go into action with probably more overtime and more extra cost.

Summary of last similar tabulation covered a sheet thirteen and one-half feet long.

It is doubtful if the federal lads with plenty of time on their hands for figuring new ways to waste tax dollars ever got around to reading it in its entirety.

Of course it is one way of reducing that gigantic postal deficit.

KREMLIN'S DEFINITION OF WAR

In America, speculation is constant on the issue whether we shall eventually have war with Russia. But in the Soviet Union there is no need for such guesswork. The Russian communism considers itself in a state of war with Western capitalism right now.

As a matter of fact, in the Red view, that warfare has been going on a long time. But its more acute phase may be said to have begun with the launching of the Cold War in 1947, when the Kremlin declined to take part in the Marshall Plan.

Obviously, we are speaking here of two different definitions of war. America clings to the traditional meaning—the open clash of armed forces. To the Russians, war is anything that weakens or harms or destroys the enemy. And the destruction need not be physical. Indeed, the Soviet leaders prefer it not to be.

So, in the Kremlin's understanding, war is: sabotaging the United Nations through endless obstructive tactics; promoting permanent international political chaos by blocking peace treaties for Austria, Germany and, if possible, Japan; using the device of the conference table to seek political ends that seem most easily attainable that way.

Undermining shaky middle-of-the-road governments by subversion; encouraging poverty and social turmoil on which communism feeds; bombarding the world with phony talk of peace, atomic energy control, disarmament; depicting the enemy as an aggressor, as an oppressor of the people, a devil masquerading as a saint.

In Moscow's terms, actual use of force is but one element in a war that can be fought on any one or more of the many fronts here suggested. But the important thing to remember is that in the Communist mind, all of these fronts merge into one. The shooting might stop in Korea, but the struggle would go on undiminished. The combat would simply be switched to another arena.

We may not like the Russian definition of war. But if we seriously propose to stand off communism successfully, we had better understand that meaning and accept it. Because that is the kind of war we're in, and our denying it won't change the fact.

To cling to outmoded concepts of war as only armed struggle is to oversimplify our current dilemma and underestimate the Soviet enemy. He is relentless, probing always for weakness of whatever kind. As the thoughtful Committee for Economic Development recently put it, "the provocation which the Soviet rulers will always recognize is the provocation of opportunity."

In a brilliant analysis of the foreign aid problem, the CED acknowledges the true nature of Soviet warfare, and declares that its flexibility requires the West to organize a "comprehensive and balanced security program which leaves no breach wide enough to invite a Soviet thrust." In other words, we must be prepared to meet the Russian challenge in every field every day for as long as the Kremlin has the power to try imposing its will upon the free world.

Anything less than this will not win the war for free men. The mere absence of violence is no evidence of peace in this age. Those who anxiously await a cease-fire in Korea as a signal to relax our vigilance may mark that fact well. A relaxed West is a West one step closer to conquest by Russia. Our guard is up; we must keep it there.

"DO-LESS-THAN-NOTHING" CONGRESS

President Truman called the Republican 80th Congress a "do-nothing" assembly. Let's see how it stacks up with its successors in work done.

As of Aug. 10, 1947, the 80th had passed 338 public laws. By the same date in 1949, the later 81st Congress had approved 220. The present 82nd Congress finished work on just 110 in the same period.

Quantity, of course, shouldn't be the prime measure of performance. But by the test of quality, the 82nd looks worse if anything. Efforts of congressional leaders to suggest that this sorry progress represents the extremely careful deliberations of wise statesmen look pretty foolish.

Fire will be here in just a short time — if some reformers don't object.

Fire fighters in the Oregon woods also had to fight volves—just like the gals in the big cities.

If you were asked to help name who in your opinion should rate the honor of being named the outstanding athlete ever developed in Warren who would be your choice? This column has been asked to sponsor a contest to help decide where this much-disputed honor should go. According to our way of considering the approach to such a question, there should be no designation as to any particular field of sport. The person upon whom the crown should be placed could have been a baseball player, football star, boxer, wrestler, track star, tennis, swimmer, basketball, or a player in any of the other games where speed, endurance, experience and generalship figure in individual achievements. For a few days we'll be glad to accept nominations for the honor, and any person with a suggestion is invited to either write this column or telephone the Times-Mirror editorial rooms, 1400. We have in mind a plan that will be announced later for selecting the man, past or present, who will be honored as the greatest athlete ever to represent Warren in amateur or professional sports. In order to make this a strictly Warren contest it will be necessary to restrict nominations to men who attended either grade or high school during their student days. Get your nominations in and watch for further information on the contest to select Warren's greatest athlete. Upon request, names of persons submitting nominations will not be revealed.

Ewing Hospitalization Plan Would Increase Benefits

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing's new plan to provide hospitalization insurance to people of 65 and over for a maximum of 60 days a year has no chance of consideration by Congress now. Too busy.

Also, legislation to put this new plan into effect hasn't even been drafted. But the idea is to get a bill introduced before Congress goes home, get it talked about and kicked around this summer and fall, then hold hearings and get it passed next year.

So far the reaction has been pretty good. Whitaker and Baxter, American Medical Association's high-priced publicity agents, have advised doctors that since the new Ewing proposal primarily affects the hospitals, the Blue Cross and other hospitalization insurance plans, they should make first comment, rather than the medical societies.

Whitaker and Baxter also reported to the medical profession that this was merely a new issue for Fair Deal candidates in next year's elections—"an effort to provide them with an escape hatch so they can avoid going before the people on the direct issue of compulsory health insurance."

THIS idea has characterized most of the other criticism that has so far appeared. With not-so-surprising uniformity, critics of the new Ewing plan have advanced three main arguments: 1. It is a backdoor approach to "socialized medicine." 2. If Social Security Administration has more money than it knows what to do with, it should reduce payroll deductions instead of broadening benefits. 3. Local communities can take care of their own aged people.

Actually, these criticisms seem to distort the existing situation with respect to the need for hospitalization benefits for the aged and the dependents of survivors covered by old age insurance.

Most private insurance policies will not provide hospitalization benefits for people over 65 or 65, or after they quit working. Poor people of over 65 may now get hospitalization benefits up to the limit of their public assistance benefits. But in many cases this isn't enough. And America's over-crowded hospitals can no longer take care of the charity load, when costs average $13 a day.

Federal Security Agency now estimates that by 1953, when the plan would go into operation if approved, there would be some seven million people eligible for hospitalization benefits.

THE chronically ill—incurables, senile, tubercular and mental cases—would not be included. Only persons requiring emergency hospitalization, for something like broken legs or an operation, would get this insurance protection.

No "means test" would be required for hospital admission. That is, aged people who could afford to pay their own hospital bills would be entitled to hospitalization benefits just the same as the poor. The theory behind this is that they paid their social security taxes during the working years, so they are entitled to the insurance.

On the average, it has been found that people of over 65 are hospitalized from two to two-and-a-half days a year. On the basis of $15 a day per patient, costs of the new program have been estimated at from $187 million to $230 million a year.

IT COULD HAVE HAPPENED ONLY IN AMERICA!

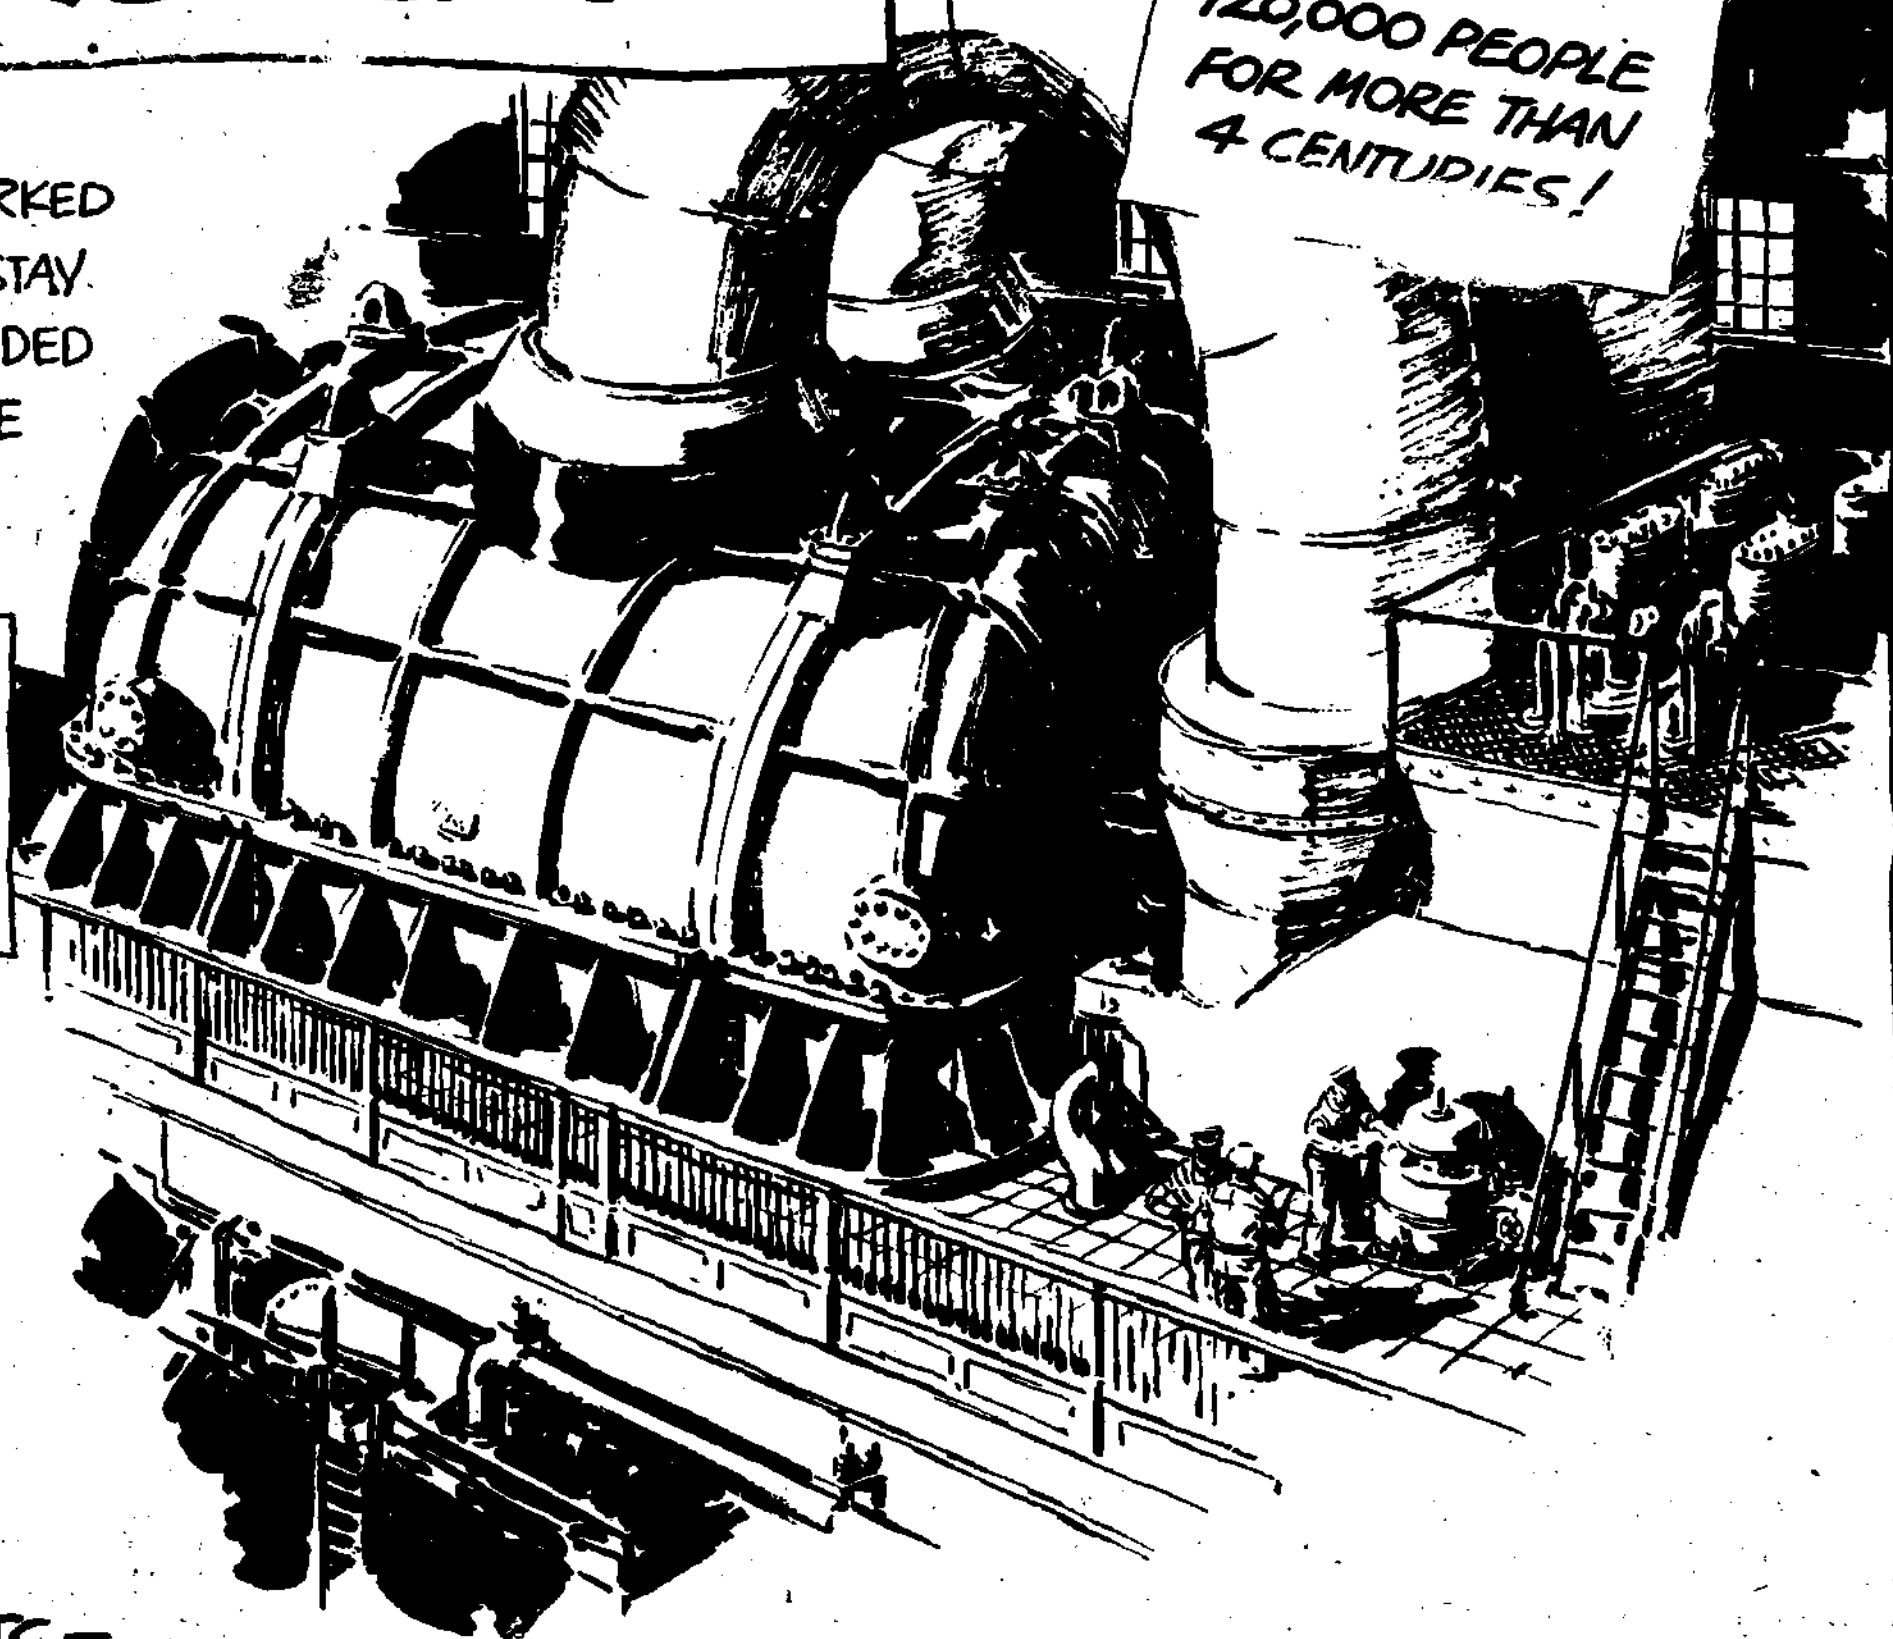

UNTIL 160 YEARS AGO, MEN WORKED FROM SUN-UP TO SUN-DOWN TO STAY ALIVE. HUMAN MUSCLES PROVIDED THE ENERGY TO PRODUCE THE THINGS PEOPLE NEEDED.

THEN—OUR NEW AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WAS THE FIRST IN THE HISTORY OF THE WORLD TO PROTECT THE PEOPLE'S HUMAN RIGHT TO BE FREE!

TODAY—TO PRODUCE THE THINGS WE NEED AND WANT, ABOUT 90% OF AMERICA'S ENERGY COMES FROM ENGINES, MACHINES AND MECHANICAL POWER

SO-TO PRODUCE OUR NEEDS & WANTS—

IN THE PAST 14 YEARS THIS TURBINE PUT OUT ENOUGH POWER TO SUPPLY THE RESIDENTIAL NEEDS OF A CITY OF — 120,000 PEOPLE FOR MORE THAN 4 CENTURIES!

FREE AMERICAN WORKMEN SUPPLY 1/10 OF THE ENERGY AND RECEIVE 86% OF THE WEALTH PRODUCED!

— WHILE 14% OF THE WEALTH PRODUCED GOES TO PAY INTEREST, RENTS AND ROYALTIES—AND TO MILLIONS OF PEOPLE WHO RISKED PART OF THEIR SAVINGS IN THE ENGINES, MACHINES AND MECHANICAL POWER WHICH WORKMEN USE.

HERE'S WHY—

GUARD YOUR FREEDOM

JUDGE ALL LAWS OR ACTIONS BY THIS STANDARD—

"EVERY man has the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness so long as he does not interfere with those same rights of any other man."

REMEMBER WHAT W^{HD} PENN SAID—

"Men must be governed by GOD or they will be ruled by tyrants."

EVERY INDIVIDUAL WAS FREE TO WORK AND HOPE FOR PROFIT BY—

1. INVENTING NEW PRODUCTS... NEW ENGINES & MACHINES THAT WOULD SAVE LONG HOURS OF HAND LABOR—PRODUCE MORE AT LESS COST.
2. RISKING PART OF HIS SAVINGS IN THOSE MACHINES WHICH NOW SUPPLY SO MUCH OF OUR ENERGY THAT—

THOSE WHO WORK IN OUR FACTORIES AND ON OUR FARMS ARE FAR BETTER OFF THAN ANY OTHER PEOPLE IN THE WORLD!

NEITHER COMMUNISM, FASCISM, SOCIALISM, NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT-CONTROLLED "ISM" HAS GIVEN PEOPLE AS MUCH AS FREE AMERICANS HAVE EARNED FOR THEMSELVES!

MRS. RALPH D'AGOSTINE

The lovely summer wedding of Rose Pellegrino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Pellegrino, Sheffield, and Ralph D'Agostine, Buffalo, N. Y., took place Saturday morning, August 25, at nine o'clock at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic church in Sheffield.

Father M. J. Macken officiated for the open church ceremony before an altar handsomely banked with palms and white summer flowers. Traditional wedding music was furnished by Mary Kones-toba at the organ. James O'Donnell sang "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother," "Panis Angelicus," "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy" and "Ave Maria."

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Walter Kosak, Washington, D. C., gowned in mint green satin with a short lace jacket and matching headpiece, and carrying a cascade bouquet of pink roses. Groomsmen were Lawrence Bridge, Lawrenceville, Ind., best man, with Anthony Pellegrino, Kane, brother of the bride, and Joseph D'Agostine, of Buffalo, N. Y., brother of the bridegroom, as ushers.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, made a lovely picture in her white satin gown with beaded bodice and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt extended into a cathedral length train, and her fingertip veil of French illusion edged in scalloped satin fell from a crown of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white pom poms with fleur d'amour and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Pellegrino wore a beige suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Immediately following the ceremony and nuptial mass, a wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, with wedding dinner served later at the Carver Hotel for the immediate families. Table decorations were summer flowers and candles and a three-tiered wedding cake.

The couple left for a Canadian wedding trip, to be at home after September 10 at 144 Avery avenue, Buffalo, N. Y. For traveling, the bride wore a black beaded suit with black accessories and a white orchid.

Mrs. D'Agostine is a graduate of Sheffield High School and has been employed by Pellegrino's Grocery. Mr. A'Agostine is a graduate of Seneca Vocational High School and is employed by General Motors in Buffalo. During World War II, he served in the U. S. Navy. Out of town guests were present from Washington, D. C.; Lawrenceburg, Ind.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Philadelphia and Kane. Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Mrs. Anthony Pellegrino, Angeline Pellegrino, Sheffield; Mrs. Gene D'Agostine, Mrs. Frank D'Agostine, Mrs. Theodore Bie-nick and Mrs. Elizabeth Sestito, Buffalo, N. Y.

Truly Independent Woman
Shuns 'Impressino' Pretense

BRIEF news item: "Mrs. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt said she paid $4.95 for the new white hat she wore at the opening of the Saratoga racing season."

"Who designed your hat?" a reporter asked the society leader, whose husband is a multi-millionaire horse enthusiast.

"This hat? Why I picked it up at a hat bar. It only cost $4.95," replied Mrs. Vanderbilt.

"Well, that's one advantage of having money," thinks Mrs. Jones, reading the news item. "If everybody knows you can afford anything you want, you can brag about how little something cost."

"But if you have to hunt for bargains and cut corners and make things do, you're always trying to make people think the 'little bargain' you picked up is something better."

Actually, though, a woman doesn't need to have money to show that lack of pretense. All she really has to have is an independent spirit.

NO NEED TO KEEP UP WITH THE JONESSES

SHE doesn't have to try to keep up with the neighbors by always trying to get something just as good or a little bit better than they have.

She doesn't have to hope that folks will think the little dress she ran across in a bargain basement really came from a salon with fancy prices and fancy labels.

She can be just as proud as a Mrs. Vanderbilt of her bargains and just as unpretentious about buying something because she likes it or because it fills her need rather than buying something just to impress other people.

The average woman goes through life trying to impress others by little pretenses because she doesn't realize that the little pretenses aren't really necessary. Anybody can be independent. It just takes spunk.

DON'T be annoyed when your wife does any of these things. They're just typical of a woman.

When she doesn't notice that you got a haircut before coming home, but is put out with you because you didn't notice that she is trying out a new hair style.

When you tell a bit of news to a social gathering which you haven't first told her privately. Then she gives you an accusing look and pouts: "Why you never told ME that."

When she explains why she bought something she didn't need by saying earnestly: "It was such a bargain I just couldn't pass it up."

Or, "I got it for half-price."

When he gets annoyed with you for criticizing her best friend, even though she often criticizes her.

When she goes to town for a day's shopping and remembers everything—except the one thing you asked her to do for you.

When she asks you how you like a new hat or dress and gets huffy if you find any fault with it.

MAMA IS A CLUBWOMAN

WHEN she tells you she just hasn't had time to mend your socks or sew the button on a shirt and in the next breath tells you she has just been made chairman of another committee.

When she asks you what you had for lunch and gives you an accusing look if it happens to be the same thing she is serving you for dinner.

When she waits until you are going through the front door to inform you that she needs some money.

When she tries to shame you into doing more around the house by telling you how much some other husband does.

When she can whip up a delicious family meal with little effort, but always seems to wear herself out getting a meal for invited guests.

When she looks into a well-filled closet and decides she hasn't a thing to wear to Saturday night's party.

Copper Industry Is Halted by Dispute

By The Associated Press
America's strategic copper industry ground to a halt today. Union leaders asked President Truman to take it over when last-minute negotiations failed to avert a strike.

As a 7 a. m. (local time) deadline moved across the nation, members of the Independent International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelters Workers went off the job.

Hit first were the smelters on the east coast, then those in the midwest. Picket lines were set up. No violence was reported. Union members at the big Barber, N. J., American Smelting and Refining plant said local negotiations also were off, at least for the time being.

Officers of the Independent Union telegraphed their seizure request to President Truman early today.

"They announced the appeal a few minutes after mediation talks in Washington, D. C., broke up after more than 12 hours of negotiation."

Roosevelt Highway Directors Convene

A luncheon meeting of the directors of the Roosevelt Highway Association of Pennsylvania, who are located at the western end of Route 6 in the state, was called for last Friday at Albion.

R. M. Sims of Scranton, president of the association, wished to look over the western end of the highway and also inspect the new large roadside sign that was recently installed by the association at the Ohio state line, in an effort to encourage tourists to turn off at West Springfield and follow Route 6, the Scenic Route, east across Pennsylvania.

Association directors attending this meeting at Albion in addition to President Sims were, Earl Cherry of Corry, V. E. Best and B. L. Leopold of Albion, and Nat W. Drake of Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims arrived in Warren last Thursday evening and until their departure for Scranton yesterday, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Nat Drake in their home at 14 E. Third avenue.

N. P. C. Employees Hold Annual Outing

Celoron Park was the scene of a huge outing last Friday afternoon and evening when more than half a thousand employees of New Process Company were guests of the local mail order firm.

All of the park's facilities were made available and during the evening the employees enjoyed dancing to one of the country's outstanding name bands, Russ Carlyle, who played a one-night stand at Celoron for New Process Company.

LeVan's Catering Service served an elaborate smorgasbord in the Pier Ballroom at the dinner hour, after which ten new members were received into New Process Company's 25-Year-Club. With the addition of the ten, the total of employees who have been with the company for a quarter of a century or more reached 43.

President John A. Blair presented suitably engraved gold watches to each of the following who completed 25 years of service to the company during the past year: Ethel Shirley, Mable Crimpenhau, Mae Magnuson, Sam Pasquino, Edna Rybel, Margaret Whiteshot, Elsie Davidson, Margaret Gould, Garnett Stover, and Goldie Joy.

The arrangements for the outing were in charge of Personnel Director Jack Blair.

A separate pact between the U. S. and Japan is expected to be signed after the main peace treaty is disposed of. That pact would provide a new legal basis for keeping U. S. troops in Japan for its defense.

In rejecting its conference invitation, India assailed the final treaty draft because it:

1. Falls to turn over Formosa to Communist China.
2. Does not confirm Russia's present hold on the Kurile Islands and Southern Sakhalin.
3. Gives the United States trusteeship control of the Ryukyu and Bonin Islands instead of returning them to Japan.
4. Allows American occupation forces to stay on in Japan.

The treaty draft as written, India concluded, contains the "seeds of a new dispute" in the Far East, and at the same time fails to restore Japan to a position of "honor, equality and contentment among the community of free nations."

Answering these criticisms, the State Department said in a 1,500-word note that the Japanese government and people overwhelmingly want American military protection in and around Japan.

Army and Air Force General Predict and equipment into battle.

"We should do all we can to develop the assault landing craft," he said.

Air Force Maj. Gen. W. R. Wolfenbarger, deputy maneuvers commander, said the assault craft have "great possibilities in eliminating the mass paratroop jumps."

"And we should work toward that end," he added.

"This wouldn't mean the end of the cocky and well-trained paratrooper entirely. For paratroopers still would be needed to 'chute to the ground behind enemy lines in small numbers to prepare crude landing strips and guide the planes in."

Elimination of mass paratroop jumps would be another sign that the Army is changing fighting habits it used extensively in World War Two. Over the weekend it was learned that the famed Rangers are being broken up and assigned to individual infantry missions.

The proprietor of the firm enlivened the proceedings striding upon the ball field as umpire, dressed in wig, parasol, gloves and dress with bustle of 1890 vintage. The picnic dinner, prepared by Mr. Hummel and staff, consisted of half a chicken for each picnicker, corn on the cob and other delicacies.

"CHARLIE" PASSED THIS WAY—Sweeping up from battered Jamaica, the hurricane "Charlie" left the town of Tampico, Mexico, half-levied, flooded and desolate. Eight trees, streets under water and wrecked buildings testify to the fury of the hurricane. "Charlie" also hit Cardenas, Mexico, 120 miles west of Tampico, leaving 37 persons dead and missing in that area. The known dead in Cardenas, 23, brought the toll exacted by the hurricane to 177 in its five-day, 1300-mile drive through the Caribbean Sea, the Gulf of Mexico and Mexico. Allyes Clash With Enemy Troops in Old Iron Triangle

AP Correspondent George A. McArthur reported Allied infantrymen were in sight of Pyongyang when they ran into a company of Reds.

The patrol broke off the engagement late in the afternoon and returned to the UN lines, still under sporadic machine gun and mortar fire.

Poor visibility almost eliminated observation of Red movements on the east central front. In that area hundreds of troops were seen heading south in the past few days.

The gathering hopes to meet again next year, the first Saturday in August.

Mrs. Russell Smith, worthy matron of the Youngsville Eastern Star, entertained a large gathering of past and present officers of that order for dinner at her home.

A miscellaneous shower was given Pauline Zolko, bride elect, on Aug. 24 in the Community Center. The young lady was very happy over the lovely gifts received.

NEW PAVING TREATMENT

Warren Borough is advertising today for bids to apply a seal coat to street surfacing which has been completed this year. Borough Manager L. M. McConnell said today that the streets to be given the seal coat have been allowed to dry, and this coat, which is a new process, will serve to keep moisture from penetrating. Bids are to be opened at Council meeting, Sept. 10, and it is hoped the work can be started and completed before the end of September.

The following streets are to be treated: Brook, Verbeck, North Canton, North Carver, Linwood, Cedar, North Parker, and one block on St. Clair.

THE MARKETS

New York, Aug. 24—(P)—A timid mixture of gains and losses persisted today in the stock market. There was a slight tendency to the downside. Changes amounted to less than a dollar a share higher or lower among leaders with the exception of a few sharp swings either way. Trading started on a mixed note with business moving along at a brisk clip, but within a short time weekend orders were moved out and business quieted down considerably. Western Union was a feature with an opening on 2,500 shares up 2 at 41. Most openers on blocks were much smaller both in size and price change.

ive Sugar Grove boys Spend Night in Hiding Woods

After hitch-hiking and wandering through woods Friday night, Sugar Grove boys, ranging from seven to twelve years, were safe at home again Saturday morning after the worst of their experience and concerned only with the fact that school days are getting near.

The boys are David Young, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Young, Mill street; Gary, 9, son of E. J. and Kenneth Fish, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fish, Mill street; and Charles Well, son of Mrs. Violet Jewell, Mill street.

Scott Stuart, assistant chief of the Sugar Grove Fire Department, led 30 men searched the wooded area in the vicinity of Sugar Grove for hours after being notified about 1 a. m. that the boys had disappeared. About 2:15 a. m. Mr.
Stuart called the Lakewood Fire

Department and the land rescue truck was sent to Sugar Grove with Chief Ralph Anderson, Gust Tulga and Carl Hannigan. There, the Lakewood men picked up 17 of the children and drove over the woods in the area with the parents calling for the boys over the truck's public address system. At 2:15 a. m., the search was given up.

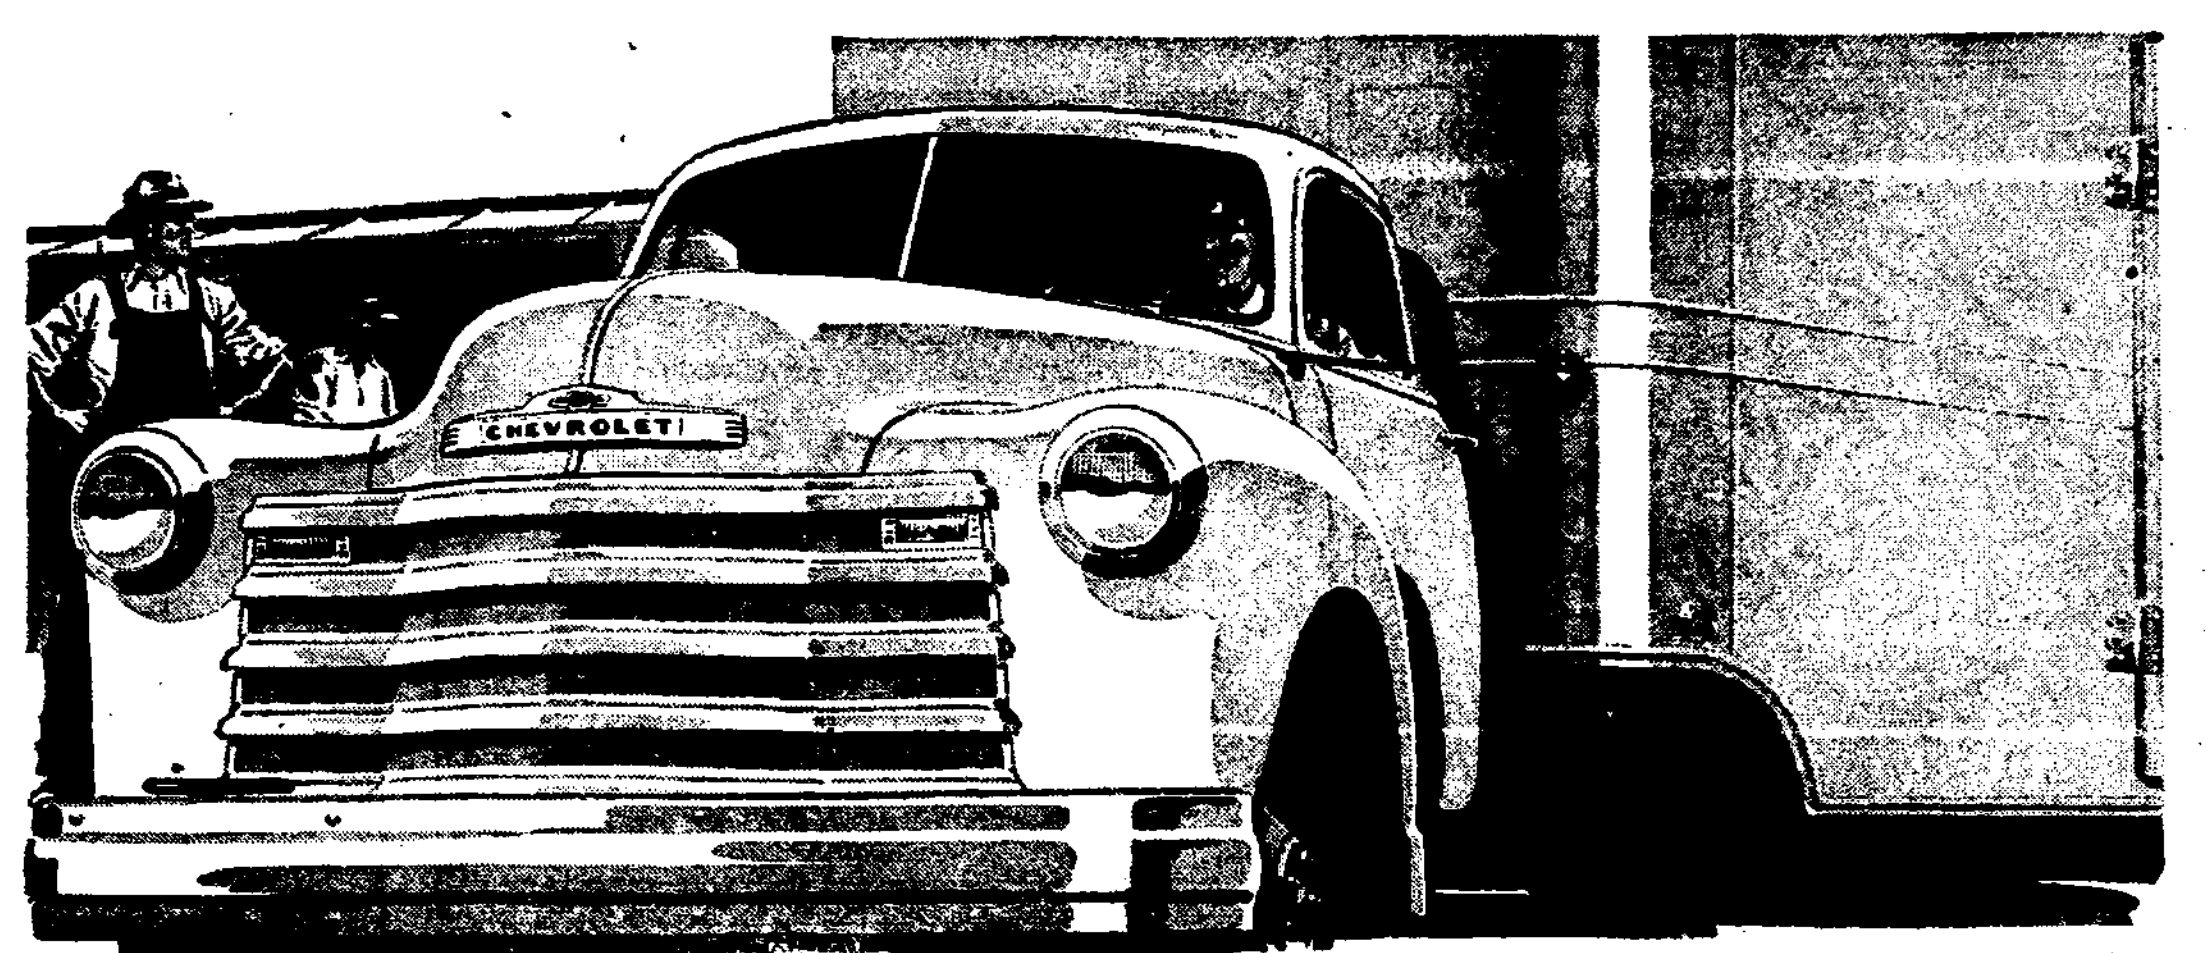

Meanwhile, Mr. and Mrs. A. J.
Stewart, Ashville, found the boys near the Lakewood Drive-In. They saw on Route 17-J and brought them to Jamestown police headquarters. Officers there took the boys out for breakfast and then notified Assistant Chief Stuart in Sugar Grove.

"The boys told Mr. Stuart that they just started out for a walk and hitch-hiked to Lakewood. They just 'played around,' the boys reported, and when they decided it was time to go home, set off on 'a short cut' through the woods to Sugar Grove and got lost. They said they wandered through the woods most of the night and wound up near the drive-in early this morning.

They weren't scared, the boys reported, weren't worried about

Sugar Grove Club Hears Address on Mission in Florida

Sugar Grove, Aug. 24 — Mrs.
Frank Dorn was hostess to the first meeting of the Sugar Grove Reading club with twenty women present. Miss Ruth Landin was guest speaker and gave a very interesting talk on her work at the Mission for Spanish speaking people at Tampa, Fla. She has been in this work the past nine years. The first four of which were independent of a mission board and the past five years under the Mission Board of the Free Methodist Church. The work was started in a private apartment and has grown to an active church, with new buildings for mission work and a kindergarten school the consequences of their escape, and had no worries at all except that school will open in less than two weeks.

OUTCAST OF DESTINY

PAUL EVAN LEHMAN

Chapter 13

THE PALACE was closed when Brent returned to it, so he went to his cabin, rolled a smoke and sat down in the dark to think.
There was no use trying to dodge the thing; he was in love with Judy Clane and, loving her, he must get her out of Destiny. The thing to do was marry her and take her away. He would have to come back and finish the business which had brought him here and she would have to wait for him, take her chance of his returning to her.

He got up at ten, cooked and ate breakfast, then walked to the Palace and circled to the alley.
There was no way a man could gain the roof of the adjoining building without something of which to stand and there was nothing within sight which would serve.

He circled around to the front of the building. It was vacant, having served as a store until Hannigan had built on the other side of the street. The door was unlocked and he went in. A box stood in the middle of the floor and above it was a trapdoor in the ceiling. Brent got onto the box, pushed aside the trap and pulled himself into a loft. Directly over his head was a scuttle opening on the roof; he raised it and crawled through the opening.

Four second-floor windows of the Palace were directly under his observation and through one of them he could see a girl standing at the washstand brushing her hair. He let his gaze sweep the roof, saw nothing which would give him a clue to the intruder and descended again, closing scuttle and trapdoor.

He knew that Lil and Judy would be going to Sing Lo's for breakfast and hung around the restaurant until he saw them coming up the street. He went inside and took a place at the table they usually occupied and when they entered he beckoned them to join him.

They sat down and he had a chance to study Judy. Her face was pale and she held her lips tightly compressed. She said, "Lil told me about somebody getting into the roof. I don't know who you mean, Tex. They told me that one drink of whiskey wouldn't hurt me and I drank it."

They did not speak again until

Chapter 14

LIL finished the number and the couples returned to their tables and ordered drinks. Brent caught Judy's eyes on him and thought there was a frightened appeal in them. He stopped behind Biff's chair and spoke over his shoulder. "May I have the next dance, Miss Clane?"

Judy shifted her gaze to Biff and said, "No, thank you."

"You may not, Miss Clane's engaged for the evening."

"I reckon that's up to Miss Clane, isn't it?"

"It is. How about it, Judy? Do you dance with him or don't you?"

Judy was looking steadily across the table at Biff. She didn't answer for the space of ten heartbeats, then she looked up at Tex.
Her gaze direct and level. "I don't know, Tex, but I promised every dance to Biff. Some other night, maybe."

She did not smile and the fear was still in her eyes. He looked intently at her, trying to read what lay beneath that look, then bowed stiffly and turned away.

Jack's toneless voice reached him. "Take it easy, Tex. Better go home and get some shuteye; we ride in the morning."

Again the word had been passed and again he had missed it. Brent swore in disgust and exasperation and strode from the room.

They met at the Palace and rode North, Brent beside Jack.
As they emerged at the end of the street they could see the camp of the stranger, Lem Purdy. Lem sat in front of a fire with a skillet in his hand. He waved to them, then became intent again on his cooking.

Brent asked Jack, "Find out any more about him?"

"No. He's pretty close-mouthed.
But he seems to be minding his business."

As was the case on the former raid, they rode steadily for two days, but their course lay more to the northwest and Brent judged that they were going to hold up a train on the main line.
For some reason Brent was seized with the feeling that they were being followed. There was nothing tangible; he saw no one when he scanned the back trail and he heard no sound of pursuit

"Please tell us who the criminal was," requests a Rapid City (South Dakota) fan. "North and South certainly were overboard at three no-trump. And what happened to South shouldn't happen to a dog."

"West led the jack of spades dummy played the king, and East won with the ace. East shifted to the jack of diamonds, whereupon the defenders ran off five diamonds and four spades while South was still trying to catch his breath. In a little while South caught more than his breath, since North was not exactly pleased with the result."

"Is this sort of thing supposed to happen every once in a while, or did somebody rock the boat? If the latter, who was guilty?"

Evidently South went for an 1100-point ride. This sort of thing is not supposed to happen. The bread and water diet is for South."

It's all right to open the bidding with a three-card club suit to provide yourself with a convenient rebid. Remember, however, that the rebid is necessary only if your partner bids a new suit. You're allowed to pass if your partner bids one no-trump or if he raises to two clubs.

What does North show when he raises to two clubs? Certainly less than an average hand in high cards. What's more, North indicates that he has no biddable suit.

and probably not even a four-card length of any description in diamonds, hearts, or spades. However, North guarantees four-card support for clubs; and the chances are that North has at least five clubs.
If North has that kind of hand, what should South hold to hope for game? South should have the sort of hand that was not quite good enough for an opening bid of two no-trump but that was too good for an opening bid of one no-trump. His message is, "I know you have a weak hand, but we can still make a game if your hand has small claim to merit."

Obviously South didn't have that kind of hand. He should have passed at two clubs on the theory that it was as good a spot as any to play the hand. A player who is advanced enough to open with what is called the "short club" should be advanced enough to pass a simple raise to two clubs.

Titusville Parade Is Witnessed by Many Thousands

Titusville, Aug. 27—Eight to ten thousand people who love a parade were out lining Titusville streets Saturday afternoon to see the annual parade of oil.

It was a fine spectacle of beautiful floats, drum and bugle music, precision marching and a touch of clowning.

The V. F. W.-sponsored parade began at 3:40 p. m. and wound through the city in two divisions. Long before the event began the downtown streets were crowded with parked autos. Parking space was at a premium. A warm sun made it hot for marchers but just right for spectators.

The Bruce Shorts post announced winners and prizes as follows: Drum and bugle corps — first, North East corps, $75; second, Titusville Elkadettes, $60.

Most beautiful float—Titusville Junior Red Cross, $75.

Float best depicting the oil industry—Venango Tractor Sales on the Titusville-Oil City road, $75.

Drill team—Junior Marines of Titusville, first, $25; second, Meadville Eagles Ladies Auxiliary, $15.

Special mention—Corry Boy Scout drum and bugle corps.

The judges selected as the best likeness of Colonel Drake the youth riding on the Marine Auxiliary float, the replica of the Drake Well. The Colonel has not yet been identified.

Rankin St. Home Damaged by Fire

Damage estimated by Fire Chief Charles S. Albaugh at $2,000 was caused by a smoldering fire which broke out in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellers, 419 Rankin street, early Sunday evening. Mr. Sellers is a former borough fireman.

No one was in the house at the time, and it is believed the fire started in a living room divan. This room was gutted by the fire which also did extensive damage to an adjoining room and completely ruined its furnishings. Woodwork and wall paper throughout the house were damaged.

No 1 and No. 3 Companies answered the alarm at 8:40 and water from the booster tanks were used.

The fire was discovered by Rev. Beagher M. Rutledge, 422 Fourth avenue, who saw smoke pouring from the Sellers home.

Times-Mirror Wins '51 Pennant In Hot Stove Midget League

The Times-Mirror squad from the Ninth Ward reign today as 1951 champions of the Hot Stove Midget League.

The squad gained the flag by shutting out the Sons of Italy in a convincing 12-0 manner at War Memorial field Friday night. The game was the rubber match in a best-out-of-three series to decide the winner. Each team previously had won one playoff match.

The Times-Mirror nine teed off with five runs in the first inning, added two more in the second and then splurged for another five markers in the third to put the victory in the bag.

A home run by Connie Hultman with the bases loaded highlighted the third inning. Dick Tannler also had a home run with none aboard in the second. Other extra-base blows included a triple for Brooks and doubles by Hultman, Tannler and Osgood.

Dick Tannler was the winning pitcher. He had a no-hitter on the fire until the fifth inning when Massa rapped a hard hit ball between first and second. Two walks loaded the bases in that frame, but the runners died there. Tannler fanned 11 batters and walked five. Three of the walks were credited to Spatitor, leadoff for the Sons of Italy.

John Mazzuca started on the mound for the Sons of Italy, but he was replaced by Gerrett in the fourth stanza. Mazzuca fanned four men, hit one batter, and walked three batters, two intentionally. Gerrett yielded two walks and allowed no hits in the two innings he was on the mound.

18th Triumph of the Season Posted by Ludlow Wildcats

Ludlow Wildcats notched their 18th win of the season against only three losses when they downed the powerful Jamestown Marling-Rockwells, 3-2, at Wildcat Park in Ludlow yesterday afternoon.

The victory also was the seventh in a row for Dean Whitaker, ace hurler. He fanned three batters, walked one and was nicked for nine hits. Wakefield, on the mound for Jamestown, struck out six, walked one, and also yielded nine hits.

The game was the "rubber match" in the series between the two clubs.

George Jubon, veteran outfielder for the Cats, was the hitting star of the game. He came through with three clutch singles that played an important factor in clinching the win.

The Wildcats have a heavy schedule for next weekend when they play the Jamestown Bombers on Sunday and Black Ash on Monday.

Dodgers Shouldn't Lose, but Anything Happens in Brooklyn

BY HARRY GRAYSON, NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—

When the Giants picked up five lengths on the Dodgers in eight days, reducing their lead to eight, the boys commenced to recall other front-runners who found the summer long and games a little tougher approaching the wire.

As the still hopeful Garry Schumacher of the Polo Grounders points out, "When you're winning and the other guy is losing, those figures switch around pretty quickly."

Schumacher, the reformed baseball writer, remembers the Cubs being nine-and-a-half games on top on their final eastern swing in 1936, and writing a story headed, "Not Yet 10 and Out." The New York club took a double-header from the Wrigleys and went on to the flag.

The Pirates were seven-and-a-half lengths to the good on their last visit to Harlem in 1921, when the Giants took five straight. It was then that the late owner, Barney Dreyfuss, walked into their dressing room and hissed, "Quitters!" John McGraw's men then proceeded to capture two of three at Forbes Field, and the first of four consecutive pennants.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC

By The Associated Press

Niagara Falls leads the Middle Atlantic Baseball League today by eight percentage points after splitting a Sunday doubleheader with Butler while the second-place Erie was idle.

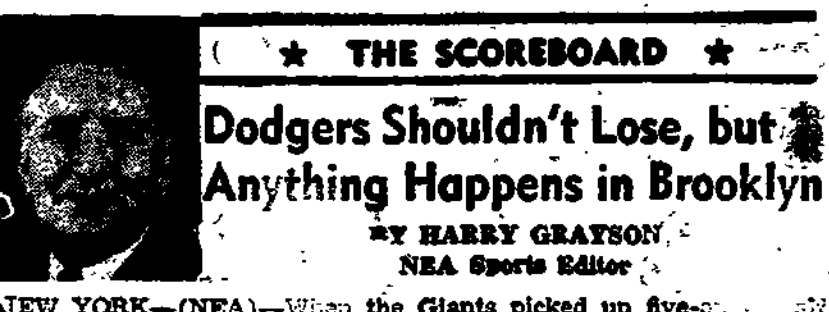

The New Yorkers won the first game 7-2 and lost the nightcap 8-5. In the only other game, Lockport nosed out New Castle 9-8 despite a five-run surge by the losers in the ninth.

Fran Zeiss pitched Niagara Falls to the win, although Butler rapped him for 12 hits while Zeiss' mates were collecting only seven off two Butler hurlers.

Butler took the second game on the six-hit pitching of Harry Sims, who needed help from Barrett in relief during Niagara Falls' two-run rally in the seventh.

DUNKIRK TEAM FAILS TO APPEAR

Warren Merchants had a game scheduled Saturday at the State Hospital field with Dunkirk, but the New Yorkers failed to show up for the contest. The Merchants also were idle Sunday.

OPS Plans Meeting Tuesday Evening At Court House

Two representatives from the Erie OPS office will be present at the Court House Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. when a general open meeting will be held to furnish information on OPS regulations covering service establishments. At the request of the Erie OPS office, the Warren Chamber of Commerce has arranged to hold this open meeting, so business people can secure first hand information regarding OPS requirements. According to Director William J. Collins of the Erie OPS office, thousands of persons or establishments dealing in services have failed to meet the requirement of filing service charges with OPS and posting fixed rates for services in their places of business.

The final date for filing and posting was June 16 and failure to comply with the Service Regulation 34 means that there are literally thousands of business establishments within the district that are operating in non-compliance with the law and subject to prosecution and heavy penalties.

Among the service establishments required to file are automotive repair (mechanical and body); barber shops, beauty shops, boat rentals, carpet layers, carpet cleaners, caterers, cleaners and dyers; dancing schools, electrical services, filling stations, funeral directors, furnace cleaning and repairing, garages, laundries, locksmiths, plumbers, banks (safety deposit vault service charges and checking account charges); real estate brokers (commissions); sewer cleaners, shoe repair, radio and television service, typewriter rental and repair services, washing machine repair, water softening service, window cleaning, venetian blinds (cleaning, repairing or repainting); tailor shops, parking lots, car windows, skating rinks, golf courses, amusement parks, automotive rental agencies, pet shops, pet hospitals, hotels (radio rental, laundering, etc.); photographing, picture developing, painting and paper hanging. All service establishment dealers who have not as yet filed according to requirements are urged to plan to attend this meeting and secure necessary information.
